TRADE UNIONISM
IS NOT TYRANNY

Charles F. Kraut, of Bridgeport, Makes Reply to Father Fogarty.

The following letter is self explanatory:

Bridgeport, Conn.,
February 9, 1909.
To the Editor of "The South Norwalk Evening Sentinel,"
South Norwalk, Conn.:

Dear Sir—Would deem it a favor should you be kind enough to permit me to reply, through the columns of "The Evening Sentinel," to some statements culled from the sermon delivered at St. Mary's Roman Catholic church by the Rev. John C. Fogarty.
To the Rev. John C. Fogarty:
Dear Sir—In reply to your dogmatic statement, "the tyranny of trade unionism is the worst tyranny in our land today," would say that I do not know which is the best or worst tyran-ny, but I do know that when an organized body of men withhold their knowledge and skill and refuse to be exploited, or uphold a principle, it cannot be construed as meaning tyranny.
Tyranny and oppression and cruelty are synonymous, and trade unions were organized to resist oppression and fight cruelty.

Father Fogarty, you say, "the right to work is a right should be taken from no man." I agree with your statement, but not with your construction of its meaning; you say that much of the suffering today is due to men being prevented from working, to allow others to work at higher wages; now is this possible? These men (union men) have a craft and give skill, knowledge and service and some receive proper compensation, they are entitled to, and as one man can only do one man's work they deprive no man of work.

Statistics prove that during prosperous times one million men are unemployed and at present there are several million men begging for work; this is so because these men have no right to work, boys and girls (innocent children) have, and thereby compe-men to form bread lines and offer themselves to be sold at public auction to any one who will feed and clothe them.

How happy the great emancipator, Abraham Lincoln, would be, could he be with us today, rich and witness white men sold at auction!
Father Fogarty, if you will study political economy and not permit your prejudices to interfere with your reason, you will learn that there is much tyranny in our land; and also that it is not due to trade unionism.
I subscribe myself,
Respectfully,
F. KRAUT,
11 Jefferson Street,
Bridgeport, Conn.
